B...I...NGO

BINGO! BINGO! BINGO! Was the word of the day as we shared a fun filled Mach 6th courtesy of our host and hostess, Mark and Margaret Kranz. The “Bingo Parlor” was all set and ready for action, complete with a table overflowing with prizes, a bountiful buffet, and plenty of beverages. As the players: Nancy and Frank Daily, Ross and Gloria Arnold, Nita and Duane Nicholson, Sharon and Ruth Venski, Ed Cassel, Dave Hjortnaes, Maynard and Carol Knudson, Mickey and Erv Wilkowski, and Tod and Sharon Wirth, took their places as we anxiously awaited the games to start. Margaret suggested the usual configurations for winning, but added special letters to celebrate the March birthdays. We played “T” for Tod, (known as Mr. Snickers), “M” for Mickey, and “E” for Erv and serenaded them with a rousing “Happy Birthday”. She even threw in “F” for Ford. Mickey and Ed took a turn at calling so Margaret and Mark got a chance to play. Despite Ed’s claim to have “defective” cards, Margaret found them to be (Go to Page 15)
