

PLANETARY NEWS

March 2017 Volume 13 Number 3

SUNSET PLAYHOUSE

Sunday, March 5, 2017, a group of club members made their annual pilgrimage to the Sunset Playhouse in Elm Grove for a bit of late-winter entertainment. This year's offering was the "Little Shop of Horrors," a 1950's-style musical that starts out light-hearted but ends with a sobering message. The plot follows the misadventures of young Seymour Krelborn, who is abused by his boss, ignored by his love interest who doesn't know he's alive, and about to lose his job. Things look like they are heading toward a slow fade for Seymour until he stumbles across an unusual plant growing in a crack in the sidewalk outside of the florist shop where he works. The plant looks ill, and Seymour takes it in and cares for it. Unfortunately, the plant needs more than nitrogen and phosphate fertilizer to keep it happy. In exchange for his food of choice the plant promises Seymour vastly improved fortunes, with all the fame and riches only a rock-star horticulturist could expect. Will Seymour succumb to temptation? The answer is YES, with Seymour eventually losing everything he might have gained, including his own life. The show also includes a sadistic Harley-riding dentist who does a great Elvis impersonation, and a large plant who sings like his last meal was Buddy Guy. It was a rousing performance, to say the least.

After the show, club members re-convened at the Baker's Square in Brookfield. Thanks (Go to P.11)

Thrust Plate Hole Repair

1J— Sunset Playhouse--- A Good play and good food afterward

5J— Model T Coach House — More work on Eido's rear axle.

8J --- Sunday Bingo --- So you think you can beat the odds and bag the big prize?

9J— Jim Oliva's — Model T TIPS

10J— Getting to Know YOU --- A introduction to a Club Member

4J— Upcoming Events --- Olive Garden Sunday Brunch

6J— I did it, So can you --- Thrust Washer hole repair

EVERY MONTH

2 Board Meeting

4 Next Coach House

12 Book Review

13 Board of Directors

16 Committee Chairs

3 Editor's Message

12 Calendar of Events

13 Recipe

13 Edsel Ford Says