Sunny Sunday Sunset Playhouse

January 29, 2012 — What could be more fun on a nippy January Sunday than getting together with friends from our Model T Club and enjoying a wonderful play filled with laughter, songs, "high kicking" dances and many jokes thrown in. Our group saw a great musical comedy called, "NUNSENSE". The nuns who performed included , Sister Mary Regina — the sister superior; Sister Mary Amnesia (she always forgets things), Sister Mart Hubert, Sister Mary Robert Ann and Sister Mary Leo. Also they made reference to a Sister Julia — a "child" of God, (get it, Julia Child). These nuns needed to put on a show at St. Helens School Auditorium to help pay for the burial of 4 nuns, whom at the time were placed in the freezer until these five nuns could come up with enough money to pay for a proper burial of (go to Page 8)
