CAVE OF THE MOUNDS

I was a cool and dingy morning where a few Model T's and their owners began to gather at the Gingerbread House in Muskego. First to arrive was Mark and Marge Kranz in their touring car. Mike Zahorik and his Tudor showed up next. While having a little breakfast and talking about the weather, Frank and Nancy Daily with modern iron; Sharon Venski, Laura, Billy and Ruth Wegener showed up in their truck and modern iron. Sharon and Ruth were then scurrying around, organizing things, then came in for a bite. As we prepared to get on the road, Dave and Marli Hjortnaes drove into the parking lot with Dave's speedster. In the parking lot, Sharon passed out the route sheets and explained how we would follow the route and what stops we were to make. Then, we were off! Sharon led the way, Dave and Marli next, Mike followed and so did Mark and Marge, with the modern Iron bringing up the rear. We headed west and south. Along the way the sky's did rain on Dave and Marli, a little, but most of the way there the weather held and did warm some as the day progressed. We stopped at various gas stations for fuel, restroom and leg stretching breaks. As we approached the Cave of the Mounds parking lot, we drove and the back, back roads. The terrain in this part of Wisconsin changed to rolling hills and vast farm land. The roads curved around farms, over the hills and provided an enjoyable ride. We arrived mid (Go to P. 8)
