St. Anne's

After a cold and rainy Friday; Saturday, May 18th turned out to be a beautiful sunny and warm day. Harlan and Lynda Pilon, Sharon Venski and Bill, and Mike Zahorik met at McDonald's across from Brookfield Square. We then toured down Watertown Plank Road and through the Menomonee River Parkway to St. Anne's Nursing Home, where we met John Markel and his son Jim. We set up in the parking lot. Another club was to be there but didn't show up, although one of the residents grandson brought the residents 1958 Ford retractable hardtop to the show. It was neat to watch the top go down. Fifty to sixty residents either came out or were brought out to participate. The Nursing Home provided live music and ice cream through the afternoon. Many of the residents walked around our cars, sat inside, had their pictures taken, asked questions and related old car stories. One resident recognized my WWII gas rationing stamp and told me all about how hard it was to get gasoline and other items during the war. One resident, a spry woman about the same age as John Markel's 1909 Model T, remembered when her Dad purchased (Go to Page 9)
