4th July Parades

The Greater Milwaukee Model T Ford Club attended two 4th of July Parades. Alcott Park and Cudahy. Tim Kirst organized and hosted the Alcott Park parade. In attendance and driving cars were Tim & Michelle Kirst; Erv & Mickey Wilkowski; Kevin, Sandy Helinski & Mom; Myron & Jan Gouza; Alexander Igielski & girl friend. Alcott Park is at 3751 S 97th Street in Milwaukee. The parade route is generally around the park. The Cudahy Parade is a new parade for us. Jeff Clark organized and hosted this parade.

Jeff wrote this about the parade; "The Cudahy 4th of July parade was a success! The Model T Club was represented by three cars driven by Jim Radtke, Chris Schoenemann, and Jeff Clark. At 11:30, we met at the staging area with the parade starting at noon. We drove north on Packard to Layton Ave. and then east to Sheridan Park. We drove four members of Cudahy Historical Society. They enjoyed riding in antique cars and
